

Six scholarships are available to undergraduate and PhD students. The number of scholarships will be increased with availability of further funding from sponsors. The applicants have to send a brief scientific curriculum to the organizing committee. The outcome of their requests will be disclosed at the moment of check-in (on June 7th afternoon) at the school site. Also the applicants have to register and pay registration fees within May 15th. Scholarships will be paid during the School.